

Rare and Valuable Publications in Scientific Library of Perm State National Research University: History and Prospects of Development (the 100th Anniversary of the University)

Barinova Tatiana Valeryevna

Abstract

A brief history of the formation of the rare books in the Scientific Library of the Perm State University. Review of the scientific and practical activities to identify, secure and update the literary monuments. Non-departmental co-operation, social and educational activities excursion. The gradual establishment of the library and museum exhibition of the literary monuments. The search for new ways to update the collection of rare books.

Key words: history of the Perm University, history of library, the regional center «Knizhnie pamyatniki Prikam'ya», digital libraries, excursion activity, exposition of book monuments.

About authors

Barinova T.V. - Scientific Library of the Perm State Research University, Section Head of rare and valuable books. Barinova@psu.ru
