

The experience of studying rare books in the Information Center of Kazan State Technological University

G.G. Mingazetdinova

Abstract

In the article described the practice of Educational and Scientific Information Centre, working with rare books, personal libraries of scholars and prominent figures of culture of the city of Kazan the nineteenth and twentieth centuries.

Key words: University libraries, library collections, rare books, autograph books, libraries, scholars and prominent figures of culture.

About authors

Mingazetdinova Gulnur Garifullova - Department of Rare Books and Manuscripts Educational and Scientific Information Center of Kazan State Technological University, Head of the Department; ork@kst
